The Tradition Continues …

Dear Hokie Friends & Cattlemen,

Welcome to the 24th Hokie Harvest Sale. The tradition of offering superior graduates from the VT program continues in 2018. This offering excels in production, performance and their respective breed rankings on multiple traits for each Lot offered. These cattle will vault any program, commercial or purebred, up to the next level. Buy with confidence as these cattle come to you backed by the University.

It has again been a great pleasure working with the VT students in the Livestock Merchandising Class. These are bright hard working and enthusiastic people. Our industry is in good hands, as these are our future producers and leaders.

If I can assist you with selection or further information, please do not hesitate to contact me. Hope to see you on October 26th.

Best regards,

Ken Brubaker
Dear Friends:

It is with great pleasure that we invite you to our 24th Annual Hokie Harvest Sale, which is managed by the 2018 Livestock Merchandising Class and hosted by the Department of Animal and Poultry Sciences at Virginia Tech. This course has been a wonderful experience for us to work with such outstanding undergraduate students over the past 24 years, many of which have become industry leaders and prominent livestock producers.

The Hokie Harvest Sale has developed a significant reputation for selling high quality, university-owned livestock. Our equine faculty and staff here on campus are selling an excellent offering of Quarter Horses. Please join us as we showcase these well-bred horses from 2-5 PM on sale day. The online auction will be open for bidding on October 1st and will close at 6:00 PM on October 26th. This year’s cattle offering features both purebred and commercial beef cattle. The Hokie Harvest is more than just a beef cattle or horse sale; it’s an exciting, fun-filled day with quality, trouble-free livestock, outstanding students, great fellowship, and delicious food! Don’t miss out on this opportunity to witness our future industry leaders in action.

This production sale is unique to the university and the Commonwealth of Virginia because it has been organized and managed by 84 Virginia Tech students in an experiential learning environment. Both two- and four-year students have gained “hands-on” experience in sale management, budgeting, advertising, cataloging, clerking, and livestock photography. Students have worked extremely hard in the planning and preparation of our production sale, which includes a live auction of 54 head of registered and commercial beef cattle and 8 horses being sold exclusively online at https://horsesales.cals.vt.edu/ in the form of an online auction that will begin on October 1st and close on October 26th.

Breeders of purebred Simmental, Angus, and Hereford cattle will be able to select AI-sired progeny from a cross-section of the VT Beef Cattle herd. Some of our very best females and bulls have been hand-picked stemming from elite donors that combine curve-bending EPDs, breed-changing genetics, and acceptable phenotype. Mature cows with proven production records and promising herd sires from predictable cow families will be sold. A strong set of pregnant commercial cows and heifers will also be offered. This is a great opportunity for any and all breeders to select high quality cattle to add to their herd. Cowbuyer LLC will again provide online bidding for the cattle sale if you are unable to attend, but you must register at www.cowbuyer.com at least one hour before the sale in order to watch/bid online in real-time.

The Department of Animal and Poultry Sciences takes great pride in our university, our livestock, and especially our students. We encourage you to ‘Come and Experience the Harvest’ on Friday, October 26th and get to know this great group of future industry leaders. Funds generated from the Hokie Harvest will continue to provide funding critical to the survival of departmental programs. Many thanks to all of you for your past support and interest in our beef cattle and equine teaching programs. We are committed to making you a satisfied customer and are here to assist you in any way we can.

Sincerely,

Dan Eversole, Director

Dear Friends and Supporters,

It is our honor and privilege as the 2018 Livestock Merchandising Class at Virginia Tech to present to you the 24th Annual Hokie Harvest Sale Catalog. As we strive to uphold the high standards of quality and strong tradition set by previous merchandising classes, we request your presence on Friday, October 26th at the 2018 Hokie Harvest Sale on our beautiful campus in Blacksburg, Virginia. The sale will begin at 6:30 p.m. in the Animal Judging Pavilion located at 500 Plantation Road.

Now in its 24th year, this annual auction continues to be a joint effort from all the students enrolled in the Livestock Merchandising Class. Many willing, dedicated professionals have served as guest speakers and mentors during the duration of the class and have thoroughly educated us on sale preparation and administration as we plan to oversee the sale. Organizing the Hokie Harvest Sale teaches each member of the class valuable skills such as the management and coordination of a successful production sale, while providing high quality, hand-picked livestock to offer to the public. This year’s auction will include 54 fantastic purebred and commercial beef cattle, including 7 purebred spring pair splits, 6 fall-calving elite purebred cows, 14 spring calving commercial cows and heifers, and 14 breeding age bulls. Our wonderful hand-picked crop of cattle includes the Angus, Hereford, and Simmental breeds.

The Hokie Harvest Sale is also fortunate enough to add an online auction of 8 Virginia Tech born and raised Quarter Horses, varying from yearlings to aged horses. The online auction of these impressive horses will open on October 1st, and close at 6 p.m. on October 26th, following the in-person showcase from 2-5 PM in the Alphin-Stuart Livestock Arena on sale day. All proceeds from the Hokie Harvest sale directly benefit the Department of Animal & Poultry Sciences and its programs to benefit the Virginia Tech students, research efforts, and extension education.

We appreciate your invaluable support and invite you to attend a complimentary barbeque dinner served prior to sale time in the Alphin-Stuart Arena beginning at 4:30 p.m. up until sale time. Join us in fellowship while enjoying some delicious food. Thank you for your continued support and interest in helping us further our education as we serve you. “Come Experience the Harvest” with us on October 26th at the 24th Annual Hokie Harvest Sale; we look forward to seeing you!

Sincerely,

Catalog and Social Media Committee

Dear Friends:

It is with great pleasure that we invite you to our 24 Annual Hokie Harvest Sale, which is managed by the 2018 Livestock Merchandising Class and hosted by the Department of Animal and Poultry Sciences at Virginia Tech.

This course has been a unique experience for us to work with such outstanding undergraduate students over the past 24 years, many of which have become industry leaders and prominent livestock producers.

The Hokie Harvest Sale has developed a significant reputation for selling high quality, university-owned livestock. Our equine faculty and staff here on campus are selling an excellent offering of Quarter Horses. Please join us as we showcase these well-bred horses from 2-5 PM on sale day.

The online auction will be open for bidding on October 1 and will close at 6:00 PM on October 26. This year’s cattle offering features both purebred and commercial beef cattle. The Hokie Harvest, fun-filled day with quality, trouble-free livestock, outstanding students, great fellowship, and delicious food! Don’t miss out on this opportunity to witness our future industry leaders in action.

This production sale is unique to the university and the Commonwealth of Virginia because it has been organized and managed by 84 Virginia Tech students in an experiential learning environment. Both two- and four-year students have gained “hands-on” experience in sale management, budgeting, advertising, cataloging, clerking, and livestock photography.

Students have worked extremely hard in the planning and preparation of our production sale, which includes a live auction of 54 head of registered and commercial beef cattle and 9 horses being sold exclusively online at https://horsesales.cals.vt.edu. Breeders of purebred Simmental, Angus, and Hereford cattle will be able to select AI-sired progeny from a cross-section of the VT Beef Cattle herd. Some of our very best females and bulls have been hand-picked stemming from elite donors that combine curve-bending EPDs, breed-changing genetics, and acceptable phenotype.

Mature cows with proven production records and promising herd sires from predictable cow families will be sold. A strong set of pregnant commercial cows and heifers will also be offered. This is a great opportunity for any and all breeders to select high quality cattle.

Cowbuyer LLC will again provide online bidding for the cattle sale if you are unable to attend, but you must register at www.cowbuyer.com at least one hour before the sale in order to watch/bid online in real-time.

The Department of Animal and Poultry Sciences takes great pride in our university, our livestock, and especially our students. We encourage you to ‘Come and Experience the Harvest’ on Friday, October 26 and get to know this great group of future industry leaders.

Many thanks to all of you for your past support and interest in our beef cattle and equine teaching programs. We are committed to making you a satisfied customer and are here to assist you in any way we can.

Dan Eversole, Director
Beef Cattle Programs
